Here for You

These sessions do some rôle reversing! Your animal companion becomes your ...advisor...

If you think about it, your animal knows you almost better than anyone else.

They observe you in all moods, all sorts of situations.

With your pet you can't pretend, and you don't need to, because you know they love you unconditionally, so you can be really honest with them.

And if you do try to hide stuff from them, well, you may have already discovered that it just doesn't work 😊

But beyond all this, our animal companions have immense wisdom to share with us.

They do this with total love.

So here's what you can expect from these sessions:

- * advice and support from your pet
- * an opportunity to learn from what they observe about you
- * further opening of your mind and heart
- * their message for you

Our pets long to share what they know, their unique perspective, their connection to surprising wisdom...and they care profoundly about their beloved people – that's YOU!

It's an immense gift not only to yourself, but also to the animal you love, to allow them to step into this rôle and shift things for you in surprising ways, should you choose.

Your investment for this Zoom call of 75 minutes: 100€
